

THE TRANSIT HUB NEWS

APRIL 2024

EDITION 5

CURATED NATIONAL NEWS

There's a Big Difference Between Transit Boards and Riders

Governing

To Fund Micromobility, Connect It to Public Transit

Government Technology

Transit Coordination Leads to Better Transit and More Rider

Planetizen News

Moving From a Shared Vision to Strategic Alignment is Key to Progress on Electrification

Mass Transit Magazine

New Report Examines Racial/Ethnic, Gender Diversity in Transit

Metro Magazine

Disabled Riders Need Comprehensive Public Transportation Planning

Prism Reports

U.S. Cities are Clamoring for Electric Buses. Why can't Manufacturers Keep Up?

Fast Company

LOCAL NEWS LINKS

House and Senate leaders say they have a budget agreement

House and Senate leaders in a joint statement said they have reached a budget agreement with days left in the 2024 session.

A. Manuland Matters / 02-20 AM

- ABTA $1.2
- SI.2 MILLION GRANT FOR CLOUD-BASED T.S.P TECH
- 90 INTERSECTIONS
 ON 4 DIFFERENT
 BUS LINES
- WILL IMPACT CITYLINK RED, GREEN, BROWN, AND LIME

Maryland DOT awarded $1.2 million grant to improve traffic signal technology

Maryland Department of Transportation announced a $1.2 million federal grant to improve traffic signal technology.

CBS Baltimore / Mar 21

BALTIMORE METROPOLITAN COUNCIL